Brazil: WFTU solidarity with the Brazilian working class

TO THE FIGHT SISTERS AND BROTHERS!

The World Federation of Trade Unions, WFTU, on behalf of its 92 million affiliated workers in 126 countries, expresses, on this March 15th, its solidarity and support to the Brazilian working class and to the affiliated trade union entities in the country that fight against the reforms of the illegitimate government of Michel Temer, especially against the reforms of the Social Security and Labor Law.

The capitalist crisis and its executioners are still attacking the democratic freedoms of the peoples and the social and labour rights of the working class on a global scale. The resulting of this process is a historical civilizational setback.

Brazil, after the recent political coup, is part of this capitalist offensive. Its people, particularly its workers suffer the consequences of this putschist articulation machinated by the local bourgeoisie in arrangement with the US imperialist action.

However, we notice that the working class of the country is awakening about the real goals of this plot and begins to react with strong mobilizations and paralyzing actions like today.

The World Federation of Trade Unions, WFTU, is convinced of the success of this battle and that it will bring new possibilities by gathering our class and its representations against neoliberalism.

Long live the Brazilian working class!
Temer out!
